LIQUID ENAMEL PAINT.

BRADLEY'S PATENT

MADE FROM

Pure White Lead, Linseed Oil and Zinc, and Always Ready for Use.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

From Prof. W. G. Simmons, Wake Forest College, North Carolina.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building, and are well pleased with it. Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work, yet we have a good job. We shall continue to use it—believing that in point of economy, durability and facility of application, it is superior to any other pigment offered in the market.
W. G. SIMMONS.

From Messrs. Engelhard & Saunders, Editors and Proprietors Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C., December, 26, 1873.

We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint." We can recommend it from a knowledge of its merits. Some of the employees of this office having purchased some of this paint from Mr. C. P. Knight, of Baltimore, have used it and speak in the highest terms of it, after a trial of several months. While it is as durable as ordinary paint, it has a much finer finish, and its cost and convenience will recommend it to all in need of paint.

From S. McGill, M. D.

THE PLAINS, FAQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The paint came safe to hand as ordered, 2 kegs, 5 gallon each, and 3 buckets, 1 gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house, two coats; the last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that, for "enamel," like hardness, and body and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I have saved sixty-five dollars by the operation—which is an item just now with the Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as "testimonials," but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people—in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed," that I give you permission (if it is desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very respectfully and truly,
S. McGILL, M. D.

LOCAL BRIEFS—

Only one or two unimportant cases at the Mayor's Court yesterday.

The house of Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas, cotton factors, &c., bought yesterday 450 bales of cotton.

At the hour of going to press this morning, 2 o'clock, old Luna was on the stage and carrying out the programme to the letter.

The receipts of cotton for the week, ending last evening, footed up 2,040 bales, the largest number ever received in any one week before.

Read the advertisement of Chas. A. Kraus, Esq., Painter, Glazier, &c. Parties desiring first-class work should favor Mr. Kraus with their orders.

Thos. S. Wetmore, Esq., who was arrested in Alabama by the notorious Hester as a Ku-Klux, is a brother of Rev. Dr. Wetmore, President of the State Council of the Friends of Temperance.

We are requested by Mr. J. J. Lewis, wood and coal inspector of the city, to ask all persons purchasing wood to take up the tickets of the seller. The law requires every load of wood to be inspected and a ticket is given to the vender by the inspector. Any person selling wood without this ticket is subject to arrest, fine and punishment.

COTTON WEIGHERS APPOINTED.—At a meeting of Raleigh Grange, No. 117 yesterday Capt. R. W. Belo, whose appointment as cotton weigher had been previously made by the Raleigh Board of Trade, was unanimously approved by the Grange, and Capt. Belo will enter on his duties at once. The Grange also appointed Maj. B. C. Manly, an additional weigher, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade. The Grange nomination in the person of Maj. Manly will, beyond doubt, be acceptable to the Board of Trade, as his personal popularity and business qualifications are well-known to our business population.

MORTALITY AMONG TEMPERANCE PEOPLE.—It may not be generally known in the community that of the 500 and over of people who have assumed the obligation of a Good Templar, only two have died. The second of that number was Mr. G. H. Spencer, who died on Thursday evening. Mr. S. had not been in this country but a short time, yet he had a host of friends. He was buried with the honors of a Good Templar by the members of Bethel Lodge, No. 77, Rev. S. W. Mangum preaching the sermon, after which the ceremonies were concluded by N. B. Broughton, G. W. C. T., of North Carolina.

THE SPANISH DANCE.—A few evenings since it was our good luck to be at Col. Davis' Hotel, Kittrell's Springs. There we witnessed, for the first time, a Spanish masked ball. The costume was plain, simple, cheap and becoming, and we feel no hesitancy in saying that the large crowd of young people never passed an evening more pleasantly. We will not attempt a description of the costume as we know there is one on foot for our young people of Raleigh, and take our word for it, just start one and they will be all the go for the season. Let us have one and that quickly.

GOVERNOR VANCE ON THE WAR PATH IN VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Enquirer of yesterday says:

"The Excelsior Club, composed of of the Conservatives of Clay, Jackson and Monroe Wards, are making grand preparations for a mass meeting to be held on the corner of Third and Broad streets on Saturday night, October 31st. Among the speakers expected to be present are Hon. Thos. S. Bocock and Major John Daniel, of Lynchburg; Hon. Zebulon B. Vance, of North Carolina, and Hon. R. T. Merrick, of Washington."

AT THEIR SAME OLD TRICKS!

Loge Harris, the New Solicitor, Administers the Law to Suit His Own Purposes.

HE SUPPRESSES INDICTMENTS AGAINST HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW, TIM LEE!

THE DUTY OF GOV. BROGDEN IN THE MATTER!

WILL HE FAIL TO PERFORM IT?

"Fiat Justitia, Ruat Cœlum."

As a public journalist, it becomes our painful duty to bring before the eyes of the people, the official acts of one of the public officers of the judicial branch of our State government, which as the sequel will show, is in not only diseretitable to him, but a damning disgrace upon the party that placed him in power.

At the late session of the Superior Court for Wake county, on the first day of the term, J. C. L. Harris, the newly elected Solicitor for this, the Sixth Judicial, comes in to Court, and (copying from the NEWS report of the proceedings at the time, which is a record of the Court) "having made known to the Court the fact of the escape from the jail a prisoner (Lee Dunlap) for which a bill is to be sent to the Grand Jury, and an account of his relationship to the former Sheriff, at his request, was excused from said prosecution, and asked that Geo. V. Strong and Thos. R. Purnell, attorneys practicing in this Court, be appointed to prepare bills for the Grand Jury, and prosecute the same."

The appointment was made and Mr. Harriss was releived.

The bills were drawn up by Mr. Strong and Mr. Argo, Mr. Purnell having been excused on the grounds that he was the retained counsel of Mr. Doyle, the jailor, who it was necessary to make a party defendant, and Mr. Argo substituted for him.

On Monday of the second week of the term presentments were made against Sheriff Lee for bribery and embezzlement, and Capt. Ashe appointed to draw the bills.

Four bills of indictment were prepared and the witnesses were duly summoned. Harriss then took the bills to sign, as Solicitor, which was not required (as we are told by several prominent lawyers). He kept the bills in his possession until Captain Ashe insisted that they should be returned to him in order to have the witnesses sworn and sent before the grand jury. Whereupon Harriss comes into court and POSITIVELY DECLINED TO PERMIT THE BILLS TO GO BEFORE THE GRAND JURY, INSISTING UPON HIS RIGHT AS SOLICITOR TO CONTROL THE WHOLE MATTER, AND STATING THAT HE DID NOT INTEND THAT THE BILLS SHOULD GO BEFORE THE GRAND JURY.

After this the grand jury came into court and asked instructions from the court about the matter, stating their desire and willingness to discharge their full duty in bringing to punishment officers charged with bribery and embezzlement. Whereupon Judge Henry informed the grand jury that when they had made the presentment their duty was done. That the matter was then in the hands of the Solicitor, and that Solicitor Harriss had declined to let the bills be sent to the grand jury, and that he was powerless to control the action of the Solicitor in the matter.

If such conduct on the part of Solicitor Harriss, who has plainly violated the law is not at once looked into by those whose sworn duty it is to protect and maintain the laws, then it must be acknowledged that our State government is "one sided" and our only remedy is to appeal to the Legislature who have the power to impeach.

The duty of Governor Brogden in the premises is prefectly plain and we do not think that he will hesitate to act, and act promptly.

Chapter 32, section 135, Battle's Revisal reads: (the italics are ours.)

§135. Any District Solicitor who shall fail faithfully to prosecute the violation in their jurisdiction, of any provision of this chapter in relation to bribery which may come to his knowledge, shall be removed from office by the Governor after due notice and an opportunity to be heard in his defence. The expenses which shall be incurred by any county in investigating and prosecuting any charge of bribery or attempt to bribe any State officer or member of the General Assembly within said county, and of receiving bribes by any State officer or member of the General Assembly in said county, shall be a charge against the State, and the properly attested claim of the county Commissioners shall be paid by the Treasurer of the State.

This is the statute law of the State, and we can see no "gap" by which the Governor can escape. We do not mean even to insinuate that his Excellency is even disposed to exercise any clemency towards Mr. Harris simply because he is a Republican, but from his honest and impartial administration so far, we are led to believe that he is determined to administer the laws promptly and impartially.

In the event of the Governor's refusal to act, the people have recourse to the Legislature where articles of impeachment can be drawn up and a full investigation of what we charge to be an outrage upon the people of Wake county, can be had.

In the name of the people we demand summary action, in this matter. Offended justice demands speedy retribution, and we, the people claim the right of "speaking out in meeting" when such flagrant outrages are attempted on our rights and liberties.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES AT TUCKER HALL.—As Edenton Street Methodist Church is undergoing repairs, the congregation will worship on Sunday in Tucker Hall. Sunday School in the Hall at 9 o'clock, a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7½ p. m. by Rev. A. W. Mangum.

GRANVILLE COURT.

Charming Weather—Entertainments at Thespian Hall—Murder Trial—Discordant Juries—Interesting Marriage—Beautiful Supper Table—The Crops.

Superior Court for Granville county was opened on Monday last by his Honor Judge Watts, he proceeded to transact business on Monday. While this was was nothing more than his duty we heard him more than once commended for it. We also heard the charge of his Honor spoken of as a creditable one. The weather during court, thus far has been charming, and on Tuesday on immense concourse of people were to be seen congregated on the streets.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings the Ladies Aid Society of St. Stephen's church gave entertainments at Thespian Hall. These entertainments were in the highest degree entertaining, reflecting great credit on the different persons in their respective spheres in the performance, and resulting favorably in a pecuniary sense. We would be glad to go more into details while on this subject but other claims necessitate that I should abbreviate this part of my letter. Several cases of more or less interest are in progress before the court, prominent among them is a murder case. The accused is a colored woman charged with murdering her child. The evidence adduced was of a circumstantial character and indicated that the child was drowned by its mother, who became callous to those emotions of affection which nature implants in the bosom of every true woman. The accused was prosecuted by Mr. Harris, the Solicitor, and ably defended by Messrs. Venable, Edwards and Wortham.

Thus far, the jury, composed partly of whites and partly of blacks, have been unable to agree on a verdict. Rumor hath it, that five are for acquital, and seven for conviction. They have been in consultation about two days up to the present writing.

Indeed the jurors of Granville for the present week seem indisposed to harmonize. There are, as I write, as many as three juries now in charge of the officers of the Court, because they cannot agree in their verdicts. It would not surprise us much if the next one should also fail to coincide in opinion, and if so, the novel spectacle of four separate juries all "hanged" at one, and at the same time, would be presented for the contemplation of the Court, the lawyers "and the rest of mankind."

But to change the subject to one of more interest to the young folks especially it is our pleasure to refer to the marriage of Mr. Henry Briggs, of Raleigh, to Miss Sarah J., daughter of W. S. Grandy, Esq., one of the leading dry goods merchants of Oxford. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., of Raleigh, at the Baptist Church, in the presence of a large collection of eager spectators.

At the close of the services the invited guests repaired to the residence of the brides father, and the account given by all who were present represents that the occasion was one of peculiar and unalloyed joyousness. To mention in print the many compliments paid the blooming bride, would offend her well-known modesty. The supper table was arranged under the plastic manipulation of Mrs. Sarah A. Elliott, who excelled herself in the beauty and elegance, it would not be extravagant to say magnificence, with which she ornamented and arranged the table, groaning as it did almost literally with the best achievements known to the science of the culinary world.

The tobacco crop of this county will hardly reach half the average yield. The corn crop is a fair one.

I desired to say something of The Torch Light and Leader, but the compass marked out for myself has been exceeded.

CHROMOS AT THE LATE STATE FAIR.—We desire to call especial attention to the exhibition of school chromos in connection with the collection from the State Geological Museum. It cannot have failed to be noticed that these chromos are admirable in execution and worthy of a place in any private parlor, merely as works and studies of art.

But it is the special use and design of these pictures that is most worthy of consideration. These are merely specimens, two of a set, of several systems of illustrations to be used in the advanced teachings now coming into demand in the State schools of the land. This is one of the admirable importations from the school ideas of Prussia, which is in advance of the world in this whole matter of universal popular education. It will be evident at a glance, not only to every teacher, but to every intelligent man, what an interest and impulse such pretty furniture would give to the studies, to which these chromos relate. The departments represented are natural history, (botany and zoology,) architecture, mechanic arts, and mechanical drawing. What a living interest would be imparted to these branches of study by the presence of such vivid reproductions of all that is most interesting and characteristic in the realities. It is earnestly hoped that some of our best schools in North Carolina will try the experiment of introducing the new method of object teaching by the use of these chromos. It makes an old boy wish he was young again, to see what advantages, in the way of royal roads to learning, the youngsters of our day are getting.

The attention of teachers especially is invited to this new means of rendering their pupils an inestimable service, and of taking a long step in advance of anything seen in this latitude heretofore in the way of effective teaching.

The chromos will be found on exhibition at the Geological Museum for inspection by such as failed to get a satisfactory look at them during the Fair.

RELIGIOUS.—Dr. Marcena Stone will preach on ministerial education at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church at 11 o'clock A. M.

NORTH CAROLINA AT THE ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.—At the Grand Exposition of the Northwestern States, held recently at St. Louis, the only article on exhibition from North Carolina was a bale of cotton exhibited by Mr. I. J. Pearce, of Nash county, which was entered for the $1,000 premium for the best upland cotton made in the United States.

There were entered for this prize over 450 bales of cotton, every State in the Union where cotton is made being represented. The committee, in order to make a fair and equitable decision, appointed a sub-committee of cotton experts and samplers, to select from the whole number the best bales. After going over all the cotton the sub-committee selected thirty for the inspection of the committee. Mr. Pearce's bale was one of the thirty. The committee then proceeded to select the three best from the thirty bales. Mr. Pearce's North Carolina bale was one of the three. Finally one of the three bales was thrown out and the contest narrowed down to a fight between North Carolina and Louisiana. After a lengthy consultation the committee declared that they could not decide as to the difference in the quality of the two, and finally determined to ballot between the two for the premium. Of course, Louisiana won it by the vote, as all the cotton used in the Western States is transported from New Orleans by the Mississippi direct, and North Carolina does not sell a bale.

We were shown yesterday by Mr. J. G. McPheeters, who was present at the Exposition, and who has just returned from an extended tour in the Western States, a sample of both the North Carolina and Louisiana cotton, and if they were not marked in separate envelopes, we seriously doubt whether Mr. McP. (one of the best cotton experts in this country) could tell one from the other.

The people of our State should feel themselves under obligations to Mr. Pearce, who at great trouble and expense, has brought prominently before the whole country the great value of our lands that can produce cotton equal to that on exhibition by Mr. Pearce, that is, if they use the same care, plant good seed, &c.

WM. GARL BROWN, ESQ.—A portrait of a Wilmington lady was recently sent to the Hon. W. W. Corcoran, of Washington city, painted by the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this item. We learn from a private letter, that Mr. Corcoran, one of the best connoisseurs in the United States, speaks in terms of high praise of it as a work of art. He makes two or three criticisms which we will give. He says the "head is too fine for the size of the canvas," he objects to the modern arrangement of the hair and a delicate pair of pearl earrings, but as a portrait and work of art he pronounces it "beautiful." The lights and shadows, we are informed, are blended with the the consumate skill of a master. We understand a portrait of Hon. A. M. Waddell, by Mr. Browne, will also be sent to Washington this winter. We are gratified at the success of our talented townsman. This is not intended as a local "puff." We seldom indulge in such things. It is a tribute we gladly pay to genius of a high order. We claim Mr. Browne as a North Carolinian, and we sincerely trust no inducements will be strong enough to tempt him to leave the State.

AN AMUSING SCENE.—From the subjoined extract taken from the Statesville American, we would certainly enjoy the sight of a mountain editor eating oysters. Drake, Jr., enjoys them amusingly, he says—swallowed them whole we reckon; fried the shells in batter, didn't you? Oh, it must have been amusing; but to the article:

"The Junior is indebted to the urbane proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, for a liberal mess of fresh oysters, which he enjoyed amusingly. Mr. Schloss will, during the season, keep on hand a full supply of the bivalves, and those wishing a nice treat, should give him a call. There is nothing more delicious—especially when you have them cooked at the St. Charles."

TRACT No. 5—Known as the Sledge tract, is situated on both sides of Abram's Creek, and contains three hundred and seventy-four acres. On this place there is a comfortable frame dwelling and some outhouses.

The several tracts have each a fair proportion of cleared land and sufficient wood land for all plantation purposes, watered with springs and branches, and adapted to the growth of cotton, corn, tobacco, wheat, &c.

To the Public.

On the morning of Oct. 2 th the following communication was handed to the Editor of the Sentinel with request to publish:

Hon. Josiah Turner, Editor Raleigh Sentinel:—On July 7th, 1874, "THE DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS," of this City, was bought and has ever since been owned by a joint stock company. The undersigned are the only stockholders except Mr. J. M. Mullen, of Halifax, and Mr. W. H. Uzzell, of Newbern, (neither of whom is now in the City,) and a lady whose name it is not necessary to mention. We wish to say emphatically that no other person, nor any corporation whatsoever has any interest in the ownership of the NEWS, nor any control in its management. As the letter of an unknown correspondent lately published in your editorial columns might convey a different impression to the public, we respectfully ask that in justice to ourselves you publish this letter in the same manner, that the refutation may have equal circulation with the erroneous statements.

Very respectfully,
JNO. W. DUNHAM,
WALTER CLARK,
GEO. W. GRAHAM,
JORDAN STONE,
G. W. BLACKNALL.

Five days have passed since this communication was furnished the Sentinel and that paper has failed to give it publication. We do not suppose that the public is very greatly interested in the question of the ownership of the NEWS. In this day newspapers are judged by the sentiments they utter, the principles they advocate and by the fairness and ability which are displayed in their editorial columns. By the columns of the NEWS and the record of its services to the party we stand for judgment.

However, since the Sentinel has failed to give the public our communication we give it publication today in refutation of any statement by whomsoever made, attributing a different ownership to the paper than that given above. The persons whose names are affixed to the letter with the exception noted, are its sole owners. No other person has any interest in it, either direct or indirect; and none other exercises any control of it.

With this statement of facts we leave the matter with the public.

The Union League.

The National Executive Committee of the Union League held an "important meeting" in Baltimore on Tuesday last, at which it was determined to effect a thorough re-organization of the League at the earliest practicable day.

We sincerely regret to read this announcement. We had hoped that this organization, which has been so fruitful in harm and suffering in the South, had passed away to be heard of no more forever. The negroes, ignorant and credulous, secretive and thoroughly social, fond of pomp and ceremonial, were induced by the traders in politics, who had unfortunately secured their confidence, to become members of the order. Once there, by means of solemn oaths and threatened penalties, they became the ready tool of the despicable carpet-bagger and was led to the commission of crimes of the most violent and revolting character.

The whites, alarmed by the knowledge of the existence of this secret, oath-bound society in their midst, as well as by the details of crimes committed, either by its orders or with its sanction, sought safety for their property and families in the organization of other societies, and in this way, we imagine, the several organizations, throughout the South, known under the generic name of ku klux, had their origin. Happily for our people, about three years ago, these societies fell into disrepute and were disbanded. The race prejudices, of which they were the fruitful parents, began to die out and kindly feelings were in a great measure re-established. This condition of affairs has continued, at least in a large number of the Southern States, up to the present time and an increase of prosperity has been the happy result of it.

For these reasons, fearing that a revival of the League may lead to difficulty, we regret to learn that its authorities have determined once again to put its machinery in motion by which to control the negro vote in all succeeding elections. The purpose of the movement is apparent. The Republican party is reeling to its downfall, and its managers, in their desperation, are resorting to this method of unification of the negro vote, in order to control it in the Presidential campaign of 1876. "Desperate diseases require desperate remedies" we are told. Verily the party must be sick, almost unto death, when a movement so fraught with danger is adopted to secure a party triumph.

In ...e of our declared purpose t... patrons of the NEWS the full... sible information upon the vital ...on of the calling of a Convention ... the approaching General Assembly, and in compliance with the request our courteous contemporaries of the Wilmington Journal, we publish to-day a letter upon the subject, communicated to that paper by Messrs. WM. A. WRIGHT, R. S. FRENCH, O. P. MEARES, JNO. L. HOLMES, ROBT. STRANGE and GEORGE DAVIS. The letter is in answer to the series of inquiries, with which our readers have already been furnished, and the gentlemen mentioned unanimously agree that a Convention should be called by the Legislature, at the next session, to make such changes in the organic laws of the State as the needs and wishes of her people dictate.

These gentlemen are members of the New Hanover bar and possess, in an unlimited degree, the confidence and affection of the people of the Cape Fear region. They are ...ous North Carolinians and ...ld give their support to no move... which they did not believe conducive to the well-doing and happiness of the people of the commonwealth.

The letter is as follows:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 22, 1874.

Messrs. Engelhard & Saunders:

GENTLEMEN—The undersigned having received letters from you asking their views upon the Convention now under discussion, have conferred together, and concurring in their opinions submit the following joint reply:

You ask us, in brief, to respond to the following enquiries:

"1st. Do you think the best interests of the people of North Carolina require their Constitution, the "Canby Constitution" socalled, to be materially and speedily amended?

2d. If, in your opinion, material changes in the constitution ought to be speedily made, which mode of making those changes, do you think the best interests of the people of North Carolina demand should be adopted, that by Legislative enactment or that by Convention?

3d. The Conservative Democratic party having an undoubted two-thirds vote in each House of the General Assembly, what do you think is the duty of that party in reference to the calling of a Convention by the Legislature at its approaching session for the purpose of amending the constitution?"

In reply to the first question, we beg leave to say, that we are decidedly of opinion that the Constitution of the State needs to be changed in very many respects, and that too right speedily. Indeed, the daily experience of six years, in our Legislative Halls, in the Courts of Justice and in every walk in life shows that it is an insuperable obstacle to good government.

This "Canby" Constitution was literally conceived in sin and born in iniquity and it must ever be a symbol of wrong and oppression. We could submit to the outrage, however, perpetrated upon us in its "adoption," so-called, if it was not the fruitful source of so many evils that time would almost fail us to refer to in detail. This, however, is not necessary, for they are well known of all men. Suffice it to say then, that in almost every one of the many instances where the "Canby" Constitution varies from the old Constitution of our fathers the difference has been productive of unmixed evil. In our opinion the sooner we return to that old Constitution the better it will be for the people of North Carolina, observing, of course, the changes rendered necessary by the war and its results. And we deem it proper to say here, in order to prevent any possible misunderstanding, that we believe no one contemplates, as no ought to contemplate, any change in regard to the Homestead Exemption, save such as will enlarge and render more secure that wise and beneficent provision. We deem it proper to say also that we believe no one contemplates, as no one ought to contemplate, any change in the Constitution tending to impair the rights of the colored people.

In reply to your second interrogatory we beg leave to say that we are decidedly of opinion that the mode of amending the Constitution by means of a Convention called by a vote of two-thirds of each House of the Legislature is vastly preferable to that by Legislative enactment, being the cheaper and more speedy, if not the only practicable mode of accomplishing the desired changes. The Constitution is so full of mischief in so many particulars, in what it says and in what it does not say, that it will be nearly if not quite impossible to make it conform to our wishes and to our wants without rewriting the whole instrument, and this it will be manifestly impracticable to do unless it be done in Convention. The mode of amendment by legislative enactment is adequate only when one or two specific amendments are desired, but is unsuited to the condition in which we find ourselves, for the reason that every one of the many changes, even the minutest and most trivial alteration, would have to be the subject matter of a separate bill before two successive Legislatures, if we would avoid the doubt now hanging over the amendments recently supposed to have been adopted. And this being so, we would be obliged to content ourselves with only a very few changes so necessary to be made or the Legislature would be compelled to enter upon an endless and interminable field of legislation.

But there is another objection to the mode of amendment by legislative enactment that is insuperable, to wit: the uncertainty that the Conservative party will have a three-fifths vote in each House of the General Assembly in 1876. Unless that party shall have such a vote in each House in the Legislature in 1876, it will be utterly powerless to amend the Constitution. When, in the history of the State, has any party held one Legislature by a two-thirds vote, and its successor by a three-fifth vote? It is surely neither wise nor prudent to exchange the certain present for the uncertain future. It is our deliberate opinion then, that if the Conservative party would change the Constitution it must do it now or never.

In addition to this, the cost of making the changes would be greatly less by Convention than by the legislative mode. The Convention consisting of only one House and that not larger than the lower branch of the General Assembly, would necessarily consume much less time in remodeling the Constitution and would do it at much less cost. The Convention would do its work, and well and thoroughly, at a cost of less than $30,000 as will appear from a simple calculation. By legislative enactment not half the work nor half so well done would cost more than twice that amount at least. And there is another serious objection to proceeding by legislative enactment growing out of the rules of parliamentary law that govern all legislative bodies. As has been said, and for the reason already assigned, every alteration in the Constitution no matter how trivial, must be the subject of a separate bill before two successive Legislatures. They can not be all put in the one bill, so that the effect of each alteration, individually, and of all the alterations collectively, can be seen at a glance. It is a well known rule of parliamentary law that there can be but one bill under consideration by the House at a time. There may be as many as a hundred bills upon the calendar, each containing a separate alteration, but each bill must be considered and perfected by itself and without regard to the other ninety-nine. This being so, does not every one familiar with legislative proceedings and parliamentary law, see at a glance how fruitless will be the attempt to render consistent and harmonious a constitution that requires to be changed in so many particulars as does ours? The hundredth bill or an amendment to the hundredth bill may possibly render the other ninety-nine changes impossible, or at best inharmonious and inconsistent. To perfect the constitution and to render all the parts harmonious and consistent with each other and with the whole, the body attempting the task must have all its parts under its entire control until the very last moment. This is absolutely essential, and this by legislative enactment is absolutely impossible. By Convention only is it possible.

By the Convention mode scarcely six months will be needed for the amended constitution to be put into operation. By the legislative mode four years must elapse before a Legislature can meet in regular session under the amended Constitution to give relief to the people.

We are of opinion, therefore, that the mode amending the Constitution by Convention is the only one that will meet the demands of our people.

In reply to your third interogatory we beg leave to say that we think it is the plain duty of the Conservative party to require its members in the Legislature to take prompt action in calling a Convention. Material changes in the Constitution ought to be made and to be made speedily. The Convention offers the cheapest, surest and speediest way to make these changes.

Believing then, as we do, that it is a sacred duty the Conservative party owes to itself and the people to offer them the speediest, cheapest, and most practicable mode of getting relief from the many and grevious burdens growing out of the Constitution, we can conceive of no sufficient reason why that party should not require its members in the Legislature to take steps at the earliest possible moment, to call a Convention. No mere suggestion of "expediency" can justify us in failing to perform our plain duty. Nor can any party long live in the affections of the people that dares not do right. If the Conservative party, haying the power to afford relief to the people, should refuse to do so this winter, we shall look forward with dread to the consequences in the elections in 1876, for we know not what answer our party will be able to make when arraigned at the bar of public opinion for being afraid or unwilling to exercise the power entrusted to it. We are confident the people will not submit in silence to such a course. We must not forget that the Conservative party will be held to a strict accountability for the power the people have put in its hand by electing two-thirds of each House of the General Assembly from its ranks. We apprehend the most serious consequences from a failure to call a Convention, but we apprehend none whatever if the Legislature shall do its duty and promptly call one.

If the Democratic-Conservative party is to be pledged to a policy of timidity—if it is to win glorious triumphs on hard fought fields only for the sake of a few bonfires and illuminations—if it is to be always afraid of grasping the legitimate and necessary fruits of victory for fear of offending somebody—we may rest assured that it will lose far more of strength and prestige by chilling and disheartening its warmest supporters than it can possibly gain by conciliating its enemies, who are the enemies of good government. There is nothing we have to fear for our party so much as a change from enthusiasm to indifference.

Very respectfully,

CHANGE IN THE CABINET.—Now that the President's Long Branch season is over, it is confidently asserted that there will be a change in the cabinet, and that before the first of December. It is known that the President and all heads of departments have bought largely of tickets for the next Grand Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, to draw November 30, and they flatter themselves that they will capture one or more of the large prizes, which will make plenty of change in the Cabinet.

TAILORING.

POLONIUS' ADVICE TO LAERTES:

"Costly thy Habit as thy Purse can Buy."

It will be remembered by Shakespearan readers in the play of Hamlet, the advice of Polonius to his son Laertes, who was just in the act of leaving Denmark for a journey to France, wherein he said:

"Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, but not expressed in fancy; rich not gaudy—for the apparel oft proclaims the man," &c., &c.

Ministers from the pulpit have said that every young man should paste in his hat the remarks in full of Polonius.

WEIKEL, the Merchant Tailor, in endorsing all that has been said on the subject, would remark that he is better prepared than ever to supply to his numerous friends and customers "habits" just as those mentioned. "Rich, but not gaudy," and not so "costly" as you might suppose. His stock of

HEAVEN OUR HOME.

BY DAVID G. ADEE.

The sailor on tempestuous seas
When black and wild the night,
Stands fearless at the shuddering helm
With eye upon the light,
Now flashing redly from the reef,
Now flickering in the breeze,
That beckons to a land-locked bay
Away among the trees.

The beacon-light of faith and hope
Burns warmly in his breast,
And lures him on with angel dreams
Of home, and love, and rest.
Through whirling eddies, foaming waves,
Towards the flaming goal
The little bark sails, staunch and true,
To where the breakers roll.

O pilot, hold her to the wind,
Nor let her fall away,
Or vain will be the cherished hopes
That cheered thee many a day!
Rough are the waves, broad is the deep
That throbs 'tween shore an i shore,
And firm the hand that steers to land
Where bursting billows pour.

The dangers of the deep are past,
The boat is in the bay,
The beacon-light is burning bright
Among the shadows gray;
The breeze is fresh, and rising still,
The spray is on the bow,
And the sailor's heart is beating fast,
For home awaits him now.

Home, with its welcome fond and kind,
Its ruddy glow of health,
Its calm, unutterable joy,
Its store of boundless wealth;
Its summer eve on vine-clad porch,
Its winter by the blaze,
When moans the blast among the boughs
In sad and plaintive lays.

Its autumn when the frosts are white,
And chesnut burrs are brown,
And changing verdure decks the hills
With a gold and ruby gown;
Its spring time of reviving plants
And soft, refreshing rain—
Toward home the spirit ever turns,
Nor longs to roam again.

Ah, life is but a restless sea,
Whose billows fiercely crash,
And deadly blasts and treacherous tides
Deep down the goodship dash!
But home awaits the sailor brave,
And, faithful to the end—
A Heaven of rapture infinite,
With Jesus for his friend.

—New York Observer.

The following are the officially announced entries for the great four-mile running race for $25,000 to be given November 14, under the auspices of the Pacific Jockey Club of San Francisco: Thad. Stevens, Joe Daniels, Katie Pease Hubbard, Henry. Alpha, Hocking and Harwood. Other parties East, and in Oregon, have sent entries and money by mail and telegraph, but the name of the horses are not yet known.

Prof. W. H. Barris, of Griswold College, at Davenport, Iowa, the Rev. Dr. De Koven, of Wisconsin, the Rev. Dr. Potter, of New York, and the Rev. Dr. Edward Sullivan, of Chicago, are mentioned in connection with the bishopric of Iowa, in the place of the late Bishop Lee. A special convention for the election will be held at Davenport on December 6.

The Conservatives and Republicans of Jefferson Parish, Louisiana, have effected a compromise, by which the nominations for Sheriff, Coroner and two members of the Legislature are given to the Republicans, while the Democrats take those for Parish, Judge and one Legislator. Both parties agreed to support E. J. Ellis, Democrat, for Congress.

Gen. Dix has been forced to make known his opinion upon the third term question. In an interview with a Herald reporter he announced himself opposed to the movement. The New York papers almost unanimously declare that the announcement comes too late to do him good in this canvass.

Rumor has it that Captain General Concha contemplates issuing a proclamation of general amnesty to the Cubans. This would do more towards pacification than anything the Spanish government has done or authorized to be done.

The Hon. Clarkson N. Potter has been compelled to decline the renomination tendered him by the Democracy of the 12th New York district, because of the ill health of his wife and the urgency of his private business.

The Lee Avenue Baptist Church has been expelled from the Long Island, N. Y., Association for favoring open communion. The Rev. J. Hyatt Smith, its pastor, is one of the most eloquent ministers in the country.

Senator John F. Lewis, of Virginia, whose term expires with this Congress, is the Republican candidate for the House, against John T. Harris, Democrat, in the Seventh Virginia District.

The St. Louis Globe suggests as Republican candidates for President and Vice President of the United States James G. Blaine, of Maine, and Jos. Medill, of Chicago.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says that Daniel W. Voorhees is likely to be elected to the United States Senate from Indiana. The evil leven works rapidly.

The Atlantic Base Ball Club, of Brooklyn, defeated the Mutuals, of New York, on Tuesday, by the remarkable score of 5 to 0.

Gen. Bradley T. Johnson has been elected Colonel of the First Virginia Regiment, of Richmond. An excellent selection.

The official canvass of the vote in Colorado for Delegate gives Patterson, Democrat, 2,163 majority.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.—Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Frequently medicines that will stop a cough will occasion the death of the patient; they lock up the liver, stop the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and in fact, they clog the action of the very organs that caused the cough.

Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of Consumption. Many persons complain of a dull pain in the side, constipation, coated tongue, pain in the shoulder blade, feelings of drowsiness and restlessness, the food lying heavily on the stomach, accompanied with acidity and belching up of wind.

These symptoms usually originate from disordered condition of the stomach or torpid liver.

Persons so affected, if they take one or two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly checked, will find the stomach and liver clogged, remaining torpid and inactive, and almost before they are aware the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated, the result of which is certain death.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain opium or anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gastric juices of the stomach, aids digestion and creates a ravenous appetite.

When the bowels are costive, skin sallow or the symptoms otherwise of a bilious tendency, Schenck's Mandrake Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared only by
J. H. SCHENCK & SON,
N. E. corner Sixth and Arch streets,
Philadelphia, Pa.

And for sale by all druggists and dealers.

TRUMPERY TONICS.—Moderation in the use of stimulants, like the avoidance of all excesses, is unquestionably praiseworthy and life-prolonging. All sensible persons admit this. But the venders of all non-alcoholic slops, desirous of undermining the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in order to sell their own worthless trash, have thought fit to go to their length of denouncing as baneful in the extreme all invigorants containing spirits. Now the very reverse of all this is the case, the fact being that no vegetable bitters entirely devoid of alcohol are worth a rush, that being the one ingredient which prevents the decomposition and souring of the others. Probably no one knows better than you, Messieurs the Trumpery Tonic Vendors, that the perfectly pure liquor used to dissolve the botanic constituents of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the very best medium that could have been selected to facilitate and confirm the invigorating, protective and remedial action of the great stomachic.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Washington City Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—An informal meeting of the Cabinet was held between 11 and 12 o'clock to-day. All the members were present excepting Belknap and Delano. Secretary Bristow and Postmaster General Jewell had a consultation with the President concerning Federal officers in Texas, and read to him the reports which are considered confidential, in relation to them, made by special agents. The only Postmasters to be changed are those at Galveston and Houston. The President has already, through the Postmaster General, requested them to resign, but they have as yet made no response to the Postmaster General. He can see no good reason for making other postoffice changes in Texas, though politicians there are urging removals that the vacancies may be supplied by persons whose chief recommendation is their greater activity in politics.

The Postmaster desires to retain those postmasters against whom no charges can be sustained of moral and business unfitness. Secretary Bristow is convinced that the charges ought to be made among certain Treasury officers in Texas, and this will be done at an early day, but with circumspection. Business in some of cases has been loosely transacted, to the loss of the customs and internal revenue, and hence the necessity for prompt action. Attorney General Williams also presented matters concerning affairs in the South, and other members of the Cabinet laid before the President subjects requiring his consideration.

The Radical Organ of New York on the Alabama Outrages.

NEW YORK, October 24.—A letter from a correspondent of the Times in Alabama, who is vouched for by that paper as a staunch Republican, says he has ridden for miles along unfrequented roads, visited all the large cities and not only failed to discover any trace of a reign of terror, but found the negroes quietly at work.

The Times in alluding editorially to the letter, says: "He finds no reign of terror in Alabama, no war of races and no pretence that the recent crime in that State have been instigated by political motives. He found the alleged murderers of Mr. Billings to be men unlike the bloodthirsty ruffians they had been painted, and he thinks that the so-called evidence against them is ridiculous.

Resolutions of the Irish Catholic Union.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 24.—Among the resolutions of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union is this: That it is not advisable now to encourage the Irish immigration to this country. That as an Irish Catholic Benevolent Union has been placed under the patronage of the blessed Virgin Mary, and under the title of the Immaculate Conception on the 8th of December be, and is hereby recognized, as the National Holiday of the Union. Adjourned to meet in Rochester.

Louisiana Affairs.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct 24.—It is stated that Cosgrove, the editor of the Natchitoches Vindicator was under Federal auspices and hundred of others were threatened. Parties generally have generous premonition of warrants and take to the woods. Squads of Federal cavalry operating in several parishes are led by Federal Marshals, but these against whom they have warrants have premonition and generally take to the bush.

Registration in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24.—The registration in the city is 28,000 white and 19,000 black. Thirty-three Parishes give 28,000 white and 42,000 black, and leaves twenty-four Parishes to be heard from. The present returns give the blacks 2,000 majority.

The Dr. Swing Embroglio.

CHICAGO, October 24.—The Synod, without pronouncing any definite sentence, disposes of the Swing case by requiring the Presbytery of Chicago to erase his name from the roll of Ministers. This ends the Swing matter for the present at least.

Insurance.

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—The agents of the Unity and Mutual Life Insurance Company, refuse to reply to the Commissioners, claiming that the company is not a legal society, within the meaning of the statutes.

From Shreveport.

SHREVEPORT, Oct. 24.—Warrants for the arrest of parties signing the labor pledge have not as yet been served.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Maggie Dundee, bound for Ragoon, was wrecked on the 24th and was lost.

The committee also reported that any change in the Prayer Book would involve a change in the Canons.

It was found inexpedient to make any change in the order of the deacons. Other proceedings were preliminary.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, October 24th.—The following appointments has been announced:

Ex-Gov. Pease, collector of Customs and Mr. Sabines postmaster at Galveston. The Department will make all changes in Texas from the lists furnished by special agents. No applications will be considered.

Bristow and Douglass will consult on Monday upon revenue changes.

The condition of the Albemarle canal is such that transportation through it is getting very uncertain. So says the North Carolinian.

A five legged calf, a live, full grown bear, just captured in the Dismal Swamp, and a lot of imported fowls will be on exhibition at the Elizabeth City Fair next week.

There were present in attendance upon the session of the Federal Court in Statesville, forty-four Cherokee Indians as witnesses. They interviewed the press of the American and seemed wonder-stricken at the modus operandi of printing.

Says the Statesville American:

Uncle Thomas J. Barkley and wife, with several others, who removed a year or so ago to Illinois, returned last Thursday to the old homestead, being sufficiently satisfied with the West. We congratulate them on their return, and hope there is enough life in the "old land" yet remaining, to make them stay.

In his anxiety to make a vacancy, in order to promote General Rufus Ingalls, his pet, the President is said to have tendered the Russian mission to General Meigs, present Quarter Master General of the army. He had previously been offered position as Superintendent of the Military Academy, at West Point, and Chief of the Corps of Engineers, in place of General Humphreys. General Meigs has the Russian mission offer under consideration.

A South Carolina correspondent of the New York Tribune writes that paper that the election of General J. B. Kersham, from the 4th Congressional district of that State, is considered certain. There is some prospect also of the election of General S. G. McGowan, Democratic candidate in the Third District. S. L. Hoge, carpet-bagger, is the regular, and R. H. Cain, negro, the independent Republican candidates.

E. E. Morgan's Sons, leading commission merchants in New York and San Francisco, and agent for the Grangers in the latter city, have failed. Their liabilities are estimated at $350,000.

MEDICINAL.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE FREE FROM ALCOHOL

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

EUREKA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

CARMER, THE DRUGGIST.

New Store! New Stock!!

AND A NEW ORDER OF THINGS GENERALLY.

Everything New!

In returning my sincere thanks to the public for the very liberal patronage received at their hands for the past seven years, I desire to call the attention of my many friends to the premises ft times made, that should my patronage be sufficient to justify it, I would establish in Raleigh a

First-Class Establishment

not inferior to any in the South. The promise has been fully complied with. On

Fayetteville Street,

two doors north of my former stand, I have fitted up at considerable expense, and in accordance with the latest New York and Parisian style,

THE FINEST DRUG STORE IN THE SOUTH.

I shall as in the past, keep every article known to the trade, and as pure and fresh as they can be obtained in New York or Baltimore, and will be sold at prices that will defy competition.

THE PRESCRIPTION DEPARTMENT will at all times be under my own immediate supervision, and with an experience of twenty-seven years in the business, it would be useless for me to state that entire satisfaction will be given. I can only refer to every physician in the city of Raleigh as regards my capacity, &c., as a competent Druggist. It is useless to enumerate my extensive stock of goods, which comprise every article to be found in a first-class Drug Store, but I desire to call especial attention to the large and attractive stock of

OILS,
HAIR DYES,
COMBS,
BRUSHES and

THE CARY COTTON GIN.

The Latest, Best and Cheapest!

I offer the public the latest improved Cotton Gin, as well as the cheapest. The following certificates, from well-known gentlemen, will be more satisfactory than anything I can say:

NEAR CARY, N. C., Nov. 12th, 1873.

This is to certify that I am using one of the Cary Gins, made by W. M. Sorrell, of Cary, N. C., and that I am well pleased with it and would cheerfully recommend it to any one wanting a good Gin.

A. B. YATES.

CARY, N. C., May 22d, 1874.

It is a pleasure in saying that the fifty Saw Cotton Gin, I purchased from Mr. W. M. Sorrell, known as the Cary Gin, does far better work than any Gin I have heretofore used, though costing from 50 to 100 per cent. less money. I think any person in want of a Gin will save money by purchasing the Cary Gin. Its performance has been entirely satisfactory to me. I can cheerfully recommend it to others.

A. F. PAGE.

We certify that the Cary Gin has given entire satisfaction to our neighbors, who have tried it, and we think it an excellent Gin.

W. C. PAGE,

We respectfully announce to the Medical Profession and public generally, that this Institute, incorporated 3d April, 1869, has been, lately, enlarged and improved, and offers all modern facilities for the treatment of those suffering from Diseases of the Eye and the Ear.

The Institute has been established and is conducted upon the plan adopted and found so eminently successfully in similar Institutions in Europe, as for example that of Von Graefe, of Berlin, of whom the Surgeon in charge is a pupil.

Application should be made to GEORGE REILING, M. D., Surgeon in Charge, late Professor of Opthalmic and Aural Surgery formerly First Assistant in the Eye Hospital at Wiesbaden, Germany.
